**The Court finds that the interests of justice in this case, i.e., to provide the parties additional time for the defendants to consider the need for pre-trial motions, outweigh the best interests of the public and defendant for a trial within seventy days of the filing date (and making public) of the indictment. I further find that not granting this continuance would deny counsel for both the government and the defendant a reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161\(h\)\(7\)\(B\)\(iv\).
